1. Introduction: A New Look at the Form of Government of the European Union and the Eurozone
Federico Fabbrini, Ernst Hirsch Ballin and Han Somsen

Part I: The Euro-crisis and Institutional Change
2. The Financial Crisis, the EU Institutional Order and Constitutional Responsibility 17
Paul Craig
3. The Governance Framework of the Eurozone and the Need for a Treaty Reform
Christian Calliess
4. Intergovernmentalism and the New Framework of EMU Governance
Georgios Maris and Pantelis Sklias

Part II: The Governance of Economic, Monetary and Financial Affairs
5. The Confusion of Tasks in the Decision-Making Process of the European Economic Governance
Alexandre de Streef
6. Constitutional Changes in Euro Government and the Relationship Between the ECB and the Executive Power in the Union
Thomas Beukers
7. The Single Supervisory Mechanism: Building the New Top-Down Cooperative Supervisory Governance in Europe
Gianni LO Schiavo

Part III: Democracy: Representation, Participation and Accountability
8. Is the EU a Representative Democracy? The Normative Debate and the Impact of the Euro-crisis
Simona Piattoni
9. Participatory Democracy in Europe: Article 11 TEU and the Legitimacy of the European Union
Christian Marxsen
10. Democratic Accountability of EU Executive Power: A Reform Agenda for Parliaments
Deirdre Curtin

Part IV: The Parliamentarisation of the EU and its Critics
11. Towards a New Constitutional Architecture in the EU?
R Daniel Kelemen
12. Enhancing European Democracy in Times of Crisis? - The Proposal to Politicise the Election of the European Commission’s President
Carlino Antpöhler
13. In the Image of State: Constitutional Complexities of Engineering a European Democracy
Anna Kocharov

Part V: New Institutional Developments
14. New Intergovernmentalism: The European Council and its President
Uwe Puetter
15. Inter-Parliamentary Cooperation and its Challenges: The Case of Economic and Financial Governance
Valentin Kreilinger
16. From Executive Federalism to Executive Government: Current Problems and Future Prospects in the Governance of EMU
Federico Fabbrini