CONTENTS VOLUME I GENERAL PART

A.S. Hartkamp and C.H. Sieburgh
The Influence of EU Law on National Private Law:
a brief introduction 1
Introduction 1
The structure of this collection 7

A. GENERAL ISSUES

Fabian Amtenbrink and Hans Vedder
The European Union Legal Order: An Introduction to its Nature and Scope 13
1. Introduction 13
2. The integrated European legal order 14
3. Harmonization in the integrated European legal order 16
   3.1. Harmonizing national laws through the enforcement of the application of the internal market regime 17
   3.2. Harmonization of the national legal orders by the EU legislature 19
4. Internal market unlimited? 22
   4.1. Introduction 22
   4.2. Direct effect of the internal market rules 23
   4.3. Free movement provisions 27
   4.4. Competition rules 30
   4.5. State aid 34
5. A Union of values 37

R. Meijer
The Rewe/Comet ‘doctrine’ and its implications for Dutch law 39
1. Introduction 39
2. The Concept of National Procedural Autonomy 39
Contents Volume I

2.1. Introduction 39
2.2. Principle of equivalence 41
2.3. Principle of effectiveness 44
2.4. Procedural ‘Rule of Reason’ 45
2.5. Principle of effectiveness versus principle of effective judicial protection 48
2.6. Supremacy and procedural autonomy 51
3. Implications of Procedural Autonomy for Dutch Law 52
4. Concluding remarks 55

Arthur S. Hartkamp
‘Horizontal Effects’ (or ‘Effects in Relationships between individuals’) of EU Law 57
I. Introduction 57
II. The concepts of vertical, horizontal, direct and indirect effect in European law doctrine 59
III. The European lawyer’s and the private lawyer’s outlook compared 63
IV. A private law approach 65
V. Conclusion 71

Roel van Leuken
Direct Horizontal Effect of the Fundamental Freedoms 73
I. Introduction 73
II. Direct horizontal direct effect: private law implications 73
III. Case law on the direct horizontal effect of Articles 45, 49 and 56 TFEU 75
IV. Case law on the direct horizontal effect of Article 34 and 35 TFEU 85
V. Case law on the direct horizontal effect of Article 63 TFEU 90
VI. Concluding remarks 92

H.J. Snijders
New Developments in National Rules for ex Officio Raising of Points of Community Law by National Courts 95
1. Introduction 95
2. The EU, in principle, follows national law (the one-on-one rule) 96
3. Rules of national procedural law 100
3.1. Which questions are at issue here? 100
| 3.2. Courts raising facts of their own motion | 101 |
| 3.3. Courts raising points of law of their own motion within and beyond the ambit of the dispute defined by the parties themselves | 103 |
| 3.4. Rules of public policy in this context and art. 101 TFEU (previously art. 81 EC) in particular | 104 |
| 3.5. Cassation in particular | 110 |
| 3.6. Permission implies obligation in civilibus | 112 |
| 3.7. Partial conclusions | 113 |
| 4. Exceptions to the one-on-one rule | 113 |
| 4.1. Types of exceptions | 113 |
| 4.2. A fourth type of exception? | 114 |
| 5. Conclusion | 116 |

Mark Wissink

Interpretation of private law in conformity with EU directives

1. Introduction 119
2. Background 120
3. One obligation, many applications 124
4. Does the obligation apply? 126
5. What must be interpreted in conformity with the directive? 134
6. How must the court interpret national law in conformity with directives? 143
7. Case law of the Hoge Raad der Nederlanden 147
8. Concluding remarks 157

Jan-Jaap Kuipers

The Competence of the European Union in Private Law

Introduction 159
The Current Acquis 160
The Choice of Legal Basis 165
The harmonisation of private law: sector specific competences 169
Generic law-making powers 175
Conclusion 185

Wouter Devroe and Pieter Van Cleynenbreugel

The Impact of General Principles of EU Law on Private Law Relationships

Introduction 187
Contents Volume I

I. General principles of EU law revisited 189
   A. General Principles as sources of EU law 189
   B. Leaving classifications behind 191
II. Growing impact on private law relationships: Mangold and Kücükdeveci as pathbreakers 192
   A. The Mangold case 193
   B. In search for the scope and meaning of Mangold 195
   C. Mangold reconfirmed: the Kücükdeveci case 198
   D. General principles and private law relationships in the wake of Kücükdeveci 201
III. General principles that (potentially) affect private law relationships 202
   A. Existing general principles with proven impact on private law relationships 204
   B. Recognised principles: EU law principles with clear potential 211
   C. Candidate principles 214
   Conclusion 217

Mirjam de Mol

Horizontal Direct Effect of Union Prohibitions of Discrimination 219

1. Introduction 219
2. Definition of the concept of horizontal direct effect 221
3. Article 18 TFEU: prohibition of discrimination based on nationality 222
   3.1. Limited horizontal substitution effect 222
   3.2. Horizontal exclusion effect 224
   3.3. Consequences for private legal relationships 225
      3.3.1. Horizontal substitution effect 225
      3.3.2. Horizontal exclusion effect 226
4. Article 157 TFEU: specific prohibition of discrimination based on sex for workers as regards equal pay 226
   4.1. Full or unconditional horizontal direct effect 226
   4.2. Consequences for private legal relationships 227
5. Article 45 (2) TFEU: prohibition of discrimination based on nationality for workers as regards employment, remuneration and other conditions of work and employment 227
   5.1. Full or unconditional horizontal direct effect 227
   5.2. Consequences for private legal relationships 228
6. Article 21 of the Charter: prohibition of discrimination based on any ground such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age, sexual orientation and nationality

6.1. The Charter and the possibility of horizontal direct effect

6.2. Mangold and Küçükdeveci -horizontal direct effect in a nutshell

6.3. The approach probably applies to all Article 19 TFEU-grounds of non-discrimination: sex, racial or ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, age or sexual orientation

6.4. Specific circumstances of Mangold and Küçükdeveci

6.4.1. The prohibition of discrimination at issue is used to challenge a public act (exclusion effect)

6.4.2. The national public act at issue must come within the scope of Union law

6.4.3. The public act at issue concerns a matter governed by a non-discrimination directive

6.5. Consequences for private legal relationships

6.5.1. De facto horizontal exclusion effect of non-discrimination directives

6.5.2. Horizontal exclusion effect outside the scope of application of non-discrimination directives

6.5.3. De facto horizontal substitution effect of non-discrimination directives?

7. Conclusion

I.V. Aronstein

The Principle of Proportionality in Legal Relationships between Private Parties: its Versatility and its Bottlenecks

1. Introduction

2. A versatile principle: the proportionality principle in the sphere of private law

2.1. The principle of proportionality

2.2. Legality review of a legislative provision fundamental to an agreement between private parties: the vertical proportionality test

2.3. Horizontal direct effect of the principle of proportionality?

2.3.1. Correction mechanism # 1: the principle of the prohibition of abuse of rights
2.3.2. Correction mechanism # 2: implications of a vertical proportionality test for the consequences of an agreement between private parties 258

3. Synopsis: compatible correction mechanisms in law of national origin 259
   3.1. The Diamantis route: the principle of the prohibition of abuse of rights in Member States? 261
   3.2. The Sapod suppositions: the restrictive effect of good faith in Member States 263

4. A horizontal proportionality test in law of national origin: some bottlenecks calling for attention 265

5. Conclusion: a principle with a long journey to go? 268

Carla Sieburgh
The Union-Law Principle of Equality and its Effect on Private Law 271
Introduction 271
Problems and questions 272
The principle of equality and its various manifestations 273
Ways in which provisions of Union law exert influence – a summary 276
Cases involving the autonomous application of the general principle of Union law 280
Case involving review against the principle of equality enshrined in the Charter 285
Comparison of the two types of cases discussed 289
Analysis of the cases 290
In conclusion 294

L.A.D. Keus
The Principle of Legal Certainty 297
1. Concept 297
2. Legal certainty and the interplay between EU law and national private law 298
3. The Emmott Case 299
4. Limitation of the retrospective effect of preliminary rulings 301
5. Interpretation of private law in conformity with directives 302
6. Procedural autonomy of the Member States 305
7. The principle of legal certainty: a heat shield of the internal legal order? 309
8. The principle of legal certainty within the EU legal system 311
9. Conclusion 313
Rael van Leuken

The Internal Market Principle and Private Law

I. Introduction
II. Internal market: intent and purpose
III. Internal market freedoms: direct horizontal effect
IV. The internal market principle: autonomous impact on private law relations
V. Concluding remarks

Chantal Mak

Unchart(er)ed Territory EU Fundamental Rights and National Private Law

1. Introduction
2. The conceptual matrix
   2.1. Fundamental rights and private law
   2.2. The consequences of constitutionalisation
   2.3. EU law and national private laws
   2.4. The Charter at the crossroads
3. Four cases
   3.1. Review of a Directive against a fundamental right: Test-Achats
   3.2. Review of a collective agreement in light of a fundamental right: Prigge
   3.3. Review of a Regulation in the balance between fundamental rights: Deutsches Weintor
   3.4. Review of a Directive in the balance between fundamental rights: Sky Österreich
4. Chartering European private law
   4.1. Judicial method between private law, EU law and fundamental rights
   4.2. The conceptual matrix rethought
5. Conclusion

B. EU LAW AND GENERAL PRIVATE LAW

Vincent Sagaert

The Acquis Communautaire in the Field of European Property Law

I. Introduction
II. Article 345 TFEU: a brake on the European harmonization of property law?
Contents Volume I

III. Definition of ‘property rights’ in European legislation 365
IV. The acknowledgement of property rights as fundamental rights in EU law 368
V. Harmonization of property security rights 376
   A. Retention of title 376
      1. Effectiveness of a retention of title in case of insolvency of the buyer 376
      2. The acknowledgement of the ‘Anwartschaftsrecht’ of the buyer on retention of title 380
   C. Fiduciary property as security device 382
   D. Right of pledge (on financial collateral) 387
VI. Time-share of immovables 389
VII. Cultural objects 392
VIII. European rules on new incorporeal assets – emission rights and intellectual property rights 395
IX. Perspectives for further harmonization 397

Arthur S. Hartkamp
EU Law and General Contract Law 401
1. Introduction 401
2. Review of national private law legislation in the light of EU law 403
3. Horizontal effect of provisions of the TFEU and the ECHR 412
I. Competition law 413
II. Discrimination and fundamental freedoms (TFEU) 422
III. Fundamental rights (ECRM) 430
IV. EU law and ECRM compared 436
V. Contract interpretation 439
4. Harmonised contract law: the EU directives 444
   I. Introductory remarks 444
   II. The directives and their relationship to doctrines of private law 446
5. Conclusions 462

C.H. Sieburgh
EU Law and Non-Contractual Liability of the Union, Member States and Individuals 465
I. General views 465
   1. Introduction 465
   2. National law is European, too 467
   3. EU-based national liability law 470

XIV
II. Non-contractual liability of the Union 471
4. Foundations for non-contractual liability of the Union 471
5. Three conditions for non-contractual liability of the Union 474
6. Elaboration of the conditions: unlawfulness 475
6a. A superior rule of law 477
6b. A rule of law intended to protect individuals 477
6c. Sufficiently serious breach 480
7. Elaboration of the conditions: lawful acts, too? 483
8. Elaboration of the conditions: causal link 484
9. Elaboration of the conditions: damage 487
9a. Elaboration of the conditions: prescription 487
III. Non-contractual liability of the Member States 489
10. Foundations of non-contractual liability of Member States 489
11. Three conditions for non-contractual liability of Member States 495
12. Elaboration of the conditions: unlawfulness 496
12a. A provision of law intended to protect individuals 496
12b. Sufficiently serious breach 498
13. Examples of unlawfulness 500
13a. Breach of EU law by failure to transpose a directive or failure to transpose it in time 500
13b. Incorrect transposition of a directive 501
13c. Breach of EU law by conduct of the national legislator 502
13d. Breach of EU law by an act of the executive 502
13e. Breach of EU law by judicial decisions of a court adjudicating at last instance 503
14. Elaboration of the conditions: causal link 509
15. Elaboration of the conditions: damage 514
15a. Elaboration of the conditions: prescription 516
IV. Non-contractual liability of individuals 518
16. Foundations for non-contractual liability of individuals 518
17. Three conditions for non-contractual liability of individuals 527
18. Elaboration of the conditions: unlawfulness 529
19. Elaboration of the conditions: causal link 529
20. Elaboration of the conditions: damage and prescription 530
V. A number of aspects of the interaction between liability and other doctrines of EU law 532
21. Direct vertical effect, direct horizontal effect, indirect effect and liability 532
22. Objective direct effect and liability 534

VI. Implications of EU law for national liability legislation 536
23. Influence on national liability law rules 536
23a. Mandatory finding of certain types of liability 536
23b. Influence on Union-based national law 539
23c. Influence on national law not derived from EU law 540
VII. Outlook 540
24. Liability enshrined in EU law: a doctrine with a short history and a great future 540

W. Snijders

Good Faith as a Dutch and as a European Concept 543
Introduction 543
Reasonableness and fairness as a norm addressed to the courts 544
Reasonableness and fairness as an instrument to give full effect to European law 547
Reasonableness and fairness as a national instrument to limit or to soften the effect of European law 549
Relevance of other European principles for domestic good faith provisions 551
Good faith as a principle of European law; case law of the ECJ 554
Good faith and fair dealing in DCFR and CESL 558
Relevance of DCFR and CESL for Dutch law 560
Further developments? 562
Good faith and reasonableness and fairness as instruments for coordination 563
Final remarks 565

Arthur S. Hartkamp

Unjustified Enrichment and Condictio Indebiti in European Union Law 567
I. Introduction 567
II. Legal consequences of the principle of unjustified enrichment as such 569
III. The action based on unjustified enrichment 572
IV. The condictio indebiti 576
V. Defences based on unjustified enrichment 581
VI. Conclusion 587

XVI
Hugo J. van Kooten

Two General Principles of Private Law in the Case Law of the Court of Justice of the European Union: Nemo auditur suam turpitudinem allegans and fraus omnia corrumpit

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I. Introduction</td>
<td>589</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. The principle nemo auditur suam turpitudinem allegans</td>
<td>591</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. The principle fraus omnia corrumpit</td>
<td>600</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Concluding remarks</td>
<td>602</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A-M van den Bossche

The Private Enforcement of EU Competition Law:

From Equivalent to Effective Judicial Protection

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>605</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. How to enforce EU competition law</td>
<td>608</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. The public enforcement of EU competition law</td>
<td>608</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. The private enforcement of EU competition law</td>
<td>611</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Private enforcement in the system of legal exception</td>
<td>616</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Commending private enforcement</td>
<td>617</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Doing away with the barriers to private enforcement</td>
<td>627</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>652</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Jeroen Kortmann

The Draft Directive on Antitrust Damages Actions and its Likely Effects on National Law

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Introduction</td>
<td>661</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Draft Directive’s likely impact on the preliminary procedural stage (the “incidentele procedure”)</td>
<td>664</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1. The preliminary procedural stage: status quo</td>
<td>664</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.1. Issues concerning the court’s jurisdiction</td>
<td>664</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2. Contribution proceedings</td>
<td>667</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.3. Discovery: documents disclosure and (preliminary) witness hearings</td>
<td>668</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2. The likely impact of the Draft Directive on the preliminary procedural stage</td>
<td>671</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.1. Impact on issues concerning the court’s jurisdiction?</td>
<td>671</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.2. Impact on contribution proceedings?</td>
<td>674</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2.3. Impact on discovery?</td>
<td>676</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Draft Directive’s likely impact on the merits stage (the “hoofdprocedure”)</td>
<td>679</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3.1. The merits stage; status quo
   3.1.1. Wrong
   3.1.2. The “protective scope” of the rule; indirect purchaser standing
   3.1.3. Loss & causation
   3.1.4. Statutory limitation

3.2. The Draft Directive’s likely impact on the merits stage
   3.2.1. Wrong
   3.2.2. The “protective scope” of the rule; indirect purchaser standing
   3.2.3. Loss & causation
   3.2.4. Statutory limitation

4. The Draft Directive’s likely impact on settlement discussions
   4.1. Settlement discussions: the status quo
   4.2. The Draft Directive’s likely impact on settlement discussions

5. Conclusion

Erik-Jan Zippio
Private Enforcement of EU State Aid Law
1. Introduction
2. Basic rules for state aid
   2.1. Article 107 TFEU
   2.2. Article 108 TFEU
   2.3. Article 109 TFEU and the regulations for the application of Articles 107 and 108 TFEU
3. Reform of the Enabling Regulation and the Procedural Regulation
4. Three different types of breaches of EU state aid law
   4.1. Unlawful aid
   4.2. Misuse of aid
   4.3. Failure to implement a Commission recovery decision
5. Effectiveness of EU state aid enforcement
6. Public enforcement of EU state aid law
7. Private enforcement of EU state aid law
   7.1. General
   7.2. Enforcement of state aid law by national courts
      7.2.1. Qualifying state aid: have the state aid criteria been fulfilled?
7.2.2. Standstill obligation 719
7.2.3. Relationship between the Commission and national courts 720

8. Remedies available before national courts in cases of unlawful state aid 722
8.1. General 722
8.2. Preventing the payment of unlawful aid 723
8.3. Recovery of unlawful aid 723
8.4. Recovery of interest 724
8.5. Claims for compensation for damages caused to competitors and to other third parties 725
8.6. Claims for damages against the beneficiary 726
8.7. Interim measures against unlawful aid 727
8.8. Contracts are considered null and void or ineffective? 727

9. The implementation of negative Commission decisions ordering recovery of state aid 729
9.1. Challenging the validity of a national recovery order 729
9.2. Damages for failure to implement a recovery decision 730
9.3. Legislative initiative for effective recovery procedures in the Netherlands 730

10. Conclusion 732