Table of Contents

Preface by the editors vii

Preface by the dean ix

1 Substance over Form and the European Prospectus Regime 1
   Tomas Arons

2 Parent and Subsidiary: For Better or for Worse? 9
   Steef Bartman

3 The Paradox of the Dutch Class Action and the Fear of a ‘Compensation Culture’ 19
   Eddy Bauw

4 What’s in a Name? Names and Conceptual Frameworks for the Design of, and Approaches to, Law Programme Courses on Undertakings 29
   Ernst van Bemmelen

5 Judicial Protection for Credit Institutions under the Single Supervisory Mechanism 53
   Ton Duijkersloot & Rob Widdershoven

6 Kelly v. Fraser Compared to the Allocation of Risk in Agency Law in the Netherlands 71
   Anka Ernes

7 Changing the Causation Requirement and Its Impact on Companies Faced with Tort Claims 83
   Ivo Giesen & Rianka Rijnhout

8 Towards a European Commercial Code? 107
   Ewoud Hondius

9 Yes We Can (in the Near Future); the Internationalisation of the Law of Execution and Attachment 117
   Anthonie W. Jongbloed
Table of Contents

10 Substance over Form in Various Aspects of Cross-Border Company Groups 145
Bastiaan Kemp & Mieke Olaerts

11 The Societas Europaea (SE) Revisited 163
Harold Koster

12 Who Is in Control in Public Procurement? 177
Pieter Kuypers

13 Enforcing Annulled Arbitral Awards in the Netherlands 195
Vesna Lazić

14 What Is the Difference between a Worker and an Undertaking?
New Developments in EU Labour Law and Competition Law 209
Frans Pennings

15 Minority Shareholdings in the EU: Between Economics, Corporate Law, Antitrust and Merger Control 221
Catalin Rusu

16 Cross-border Conversions after Vale
– the German Experience 249
Christoph Teichmann

17 Shareholders’ Fundamental Rights in Listed Companies
Some Relevant and Some Undesirable EU Initiatives 271
Erik Werlauff

Contributors 289